1. Subject is approx. 30 years old, Russian, 5'5, blonde, slim, sympathetic, looks like a model or actress, somewhat naive, gave the impression of a girl who dreamt about an actress' career but failed and married instead. She is wife of a Soviet employee at the United Nations in New York. She herself is a theatre critic and sometimes her articles are published in "Izvestia". Subject liked Western art and theatre. She is a frequent visitor to Broadway theaters. She liked, for instance, the performance of "The Tale of Zerkow" though she did not agree with the idea of the play itself.

Subject is also interested in cinematography. She liked very much "Cybelle". In "Lawrence of Arabia" she was delighted with the scenery. The film itself had no idea.

2. After N told subject that he was working now as a deputy career man her interest in him became suddenly very strong and she gave him the telephone number of her husband to contact her. The telephone # is ~~PL 4~~ PL 4-1234, Ext. 2010. N invited her to a film that was to be shown at "20th Century Fox" on 2 Dec 1953 but as the presentation was deferred, he informed her accordingly through her husband by telephone.

3. N is willing to invite Subject to a film at which he has participated some time ~~in~~ January.
